

Cancer analysis data flows in Public Health England

From the Public Health England National Cancer Registration and Analysis Service

This data flow diagram illustrates how the National Cancer Registration and Analysis Service (NCRAS) collects and organises cancer data and transforms it into impactful intelligence. NCRAS delivers a world-class cancer registration service for England and undertakes analyses to drive improvements in prevention, standards of care and clinical outcomes for cancer patients

